AT ONE WORLD OBSERVATORY

VENUE BROCHURE

*At the top,
there's only one.*

ASPIRE AT ONE WORLD OBSERVATORY

This isn't just the highest point in Lower Manhattan, it's the highest in the Western Hemisphere. One World Trade is an emblem of New York's skyline, soaring 1,776 feet above the city. Since its unveiling in 2015, it's become more than a global symbol; it's a global destination. There's no venue more iconic—or more elevated—anywhere in the world. Let's take a closer look at what makes this place so extraordinary.

A VENUE WITH VIEWS

Unique.
Unmatched.
Unforgettable.

With 360-degree views stretching over 50 miles, there's no better way to capture the vastness of New York City and beyond. From skyline to shore, the cityscapes, rivers, and landmarks of New York and New Jersey unfold before you. Floor-to-ceiling windows draw guests into the moment—into an experience where they can lose themselves and be transported.
